

THE HABIT of fleeing to the mountains or to the seashore is one of long standing, and probably no people on the face of the earth are more given to following it than are the American people as a nation. Salt Lake society has been addicted to this practice for so many years that it has come to be considered necessary for most of its well-to-do families to spend a month or so at one or another of the pleasant mountain retreats with which the city is surrounded. This alone would account for the exodus which has taken place during the past few weeks for the weather—that inextinguishable scapegoat—could not have been responsible this summer. Not a day passes but someone leaves for the summer, and yet the summers here are almost as nearly perfect as one could wish. The social affairs of the past week, while delightful in many ways, have been almost all of an informal nature, and the pleasant afternoons and cool evenings have lent their aid to make them altogether enjoyable. A few delightful afternoon affairs have been recorded, and as many evening events. The coming week will have one large and elaborate party in the garrison hop at the post, which will take place Friday evening. Great preparations are being made, and the prospects are that it will be one of the most delightful events of the summer.

Marriages.

The marriage of Miss Carrie Mooney and Mr. Eugene Kahn, son of the late Colonel Samuel Kahn, will be celebrated next Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emma Mooney. The ceremony will be performed by the uncle of the groom, Dr. M. Jacobson of Shreveport, La., at 5 o'clock, and will be witnessed by only the members of the families. Miss Mooney will be attended by Miss Essie Morris of Helena, Mont., as bridesmaid, and the best man will be the groom's brother.

The marriage of Miss Marguerite Harris of Kansas City and Mr. William Mungler, formerly of Salt Lake, will occur Wednesday, July 20. The ceremony will take place at St. George's pro-cathedral, and the marriage will be one of the most elaborate of the season. The home of the young people will hereafter be in Kansas City.

Afternoon Party.

Mrs. E. W. Duncan was the hostess at one of the pleasantest parties of the week given last Tuesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Harriman, who is her guest for the summer. The rooms, delightfully cool, and fragrant with the breath of summer flowers, were filled with a large number of the friends of the hostess and of the honored guest. Pink and white were the colors used in the decorations, and the house was made beautiful by their combination. The game of "isms" was played and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. A. J. Gorman and Mrs. P. F. Reed. Mrs. Snow and Miss McIntosh added to the pleasure of the day by charming vocal solos. Among the ladies invited to meet Mrs. Harriman were Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Love, Mrs. Binford, Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Gorman, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Ridge, Mrs. Gannett, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Sol Siegel, Mrs. Bamberger, Mrs. Prout, Mrs. Brink, Mrs. Hobbs, Mrs. Brice, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Coates, Mrs. Royle, Mrs. King, Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. Archer, Miss Cohn, Miss Planders, Miss Zerle, Miss Osterberg, Miss Lowe, Miss Howat, Miss Orloff of El Paso, Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. Newhouse, Mrs. Nelden, Mrs. Weir, Mrs. Tilston of St. Paul and Mrs. Brown of New York.

Sells-Deitrick Marriage.

The wedding of the week which was of especial interest to society was that of Miss Beatrice Sells, daughter of the late Colonel Eliah Sells, and Mr. James Deitrick of Virginia. The ceremony took place Wednesday at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Harriet Sells, the officiating clergyman being Rev. J. Brainerd Thrall, who had baptized the bride in her infancy. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few of the most intimate friends of the bride, and at its close the guests sat down to a wedding breakfast.

The house was decorated handsomely in white and pale green, a large wedding bell of pure white flowers being suspended directly over the heads of the bride and groom, who stood in the archway during the ceremony. The bride was unattended, and wore a handsome going away gown of champagne-colored broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match. Mr. and Mrs. Deitrick left on the noon train for El Paso, where they will be the guests for a month of the groom's mother. Later they will make their home in Richmond, Va. The good wishes of a host of friends, who have known the bride from her childhood, and who were warm friends of her father and mother, will follow them to their home.

Musicales.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the past week was the musicale given last Monday evening by Judge and Mrs. Royle and Mrs. Martha Royle King. Mrs. King was assisted in the musical part by Miss Edna Cohn and Mr. Woodmansee. Mrs. Royle, assisted by Mrs. George Wood and Mrs. Bartling, received the guests on their arrival, and Mr. Willard Thompson and Mr. Goodwin acted as ushers. Much has been said of the musical part of the evening, and only the highest praise was given to the artists who delighted the audience. This is only the first of a series of musicales which Mrs. King is to give, and which will be a great source of pleasure to her friends.

A Kensington Tea.

Miss Edith Hobbs gave a most enjoyable Kensington tea Wednesday afternoon to which about twenty-five of the young lady's friends were invited. Sweet peas were used for the decorations throughout the rooms and white and green were the colors carried out in all the details. An interesting guessing game was played in which the first prize went to Miss Edith Hale and the second to Miss Grant.

The invited guests were: Misses Duncan, Bartholemew, Morrison, Tridley, Stewart, Walden, Booth, Hale, Leary, Grant, Davis, Donnellan, Dowe, Miller, Sawyer, Young, Suppington, Dickert, Daly, Ferguson, Breeden, Kenyon, Beeman and Fern Hobbs.

At Dinner.

Mrs. Harold Russell was the hostess at a beautifully appointed dinner last Thursday evening. The affair was a "Twelfth Night" dinner, and the place cards were the cards of that organization in New York, of which Mrs. Russell is a member. An ivy leaf on a white ground, with the name of the club, was on each card. The table decorations were pink and broad streamers of pink satin ribbon radiated from a centerpiece of pink and sweet peas. The guests of the occasion were Mrs. McCarthy, Miss Chamberlain, Mrs. Joseph R. Folsom of San Francisco, Mrs. J. H. Young, Miss Shearman, Mrs. Kenneth Kerr, Mrs. William Reid and Mrs. Frank Jennings.

Linon Shower.

Miss Isabel Schofield was the guest of honor at a very pleasant linen shower arranged by Miss Vera Tempest and Miss Bessie Croxall last Thursday afternoon. The rooms were prettily decorated, the parlors showing a wealth of sweet peas, and the dining room presenting a bower of fragrant nasturtiums. About twenty-four friends were present and an afternoon of delightful sociability was passed.

Coming and Going.

Mrs. McClure is in San Francisco with her father, Judge Milner.

Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood is spending a week with friends at Castilla Springs.

Mrs. W. P. Lynn and children are spending a year on the Pacific coast.

Miss Agnes Rose Lane is settled at 158 North Main street, and will be at
